

Wolf Creek, Colorado

Wolf Creek Colorado Reintroduction Site Profile

Date Updated: February 2010

Location: 20 miles NE of Rangely, CO

Species of PD: White-tailed Prairie Dogs Acres of PD: 19,000

Land ownership: 90% BLM/4% Private/6% State

Years of ferret reintroduction: 2001 to 2008

Number of ferrets released to date: 252

Estimated population size: 1

Research activities: Plague and Plague Vaccine Research by Colorado Division of Wildlife

Site challenges: Plague, low prairie dog density

Volunteer or visitor opportunities: spotlighting to monitor wild ferrets

Education staff and activities: none

Future plans (release, suspend, translocations, etc): Continue monitoring prairie dog and ferret populations

Other information: Only reintroduction site in Colorado

